Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (134-10010)

DATE: 5/12/72

FROM : SAC, SAN FRANCISCO [REDACTED] 7-15

SUBJECT: [REDACTED] b7D

Captioned informant advised that he entered a plea of nolo contendere upon the advice of his attorney to a charge of violation of California Vehicle Code, Section 23102. This is a misdemeanor charge for one driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Informant has acknowledged that he was, in fact, under the influence of a tranquilizer prescribed by his personal physician. While driving in this condition, the informant's vehicle struck the rear of another car.

As a result of this plea, informant was awarded a fine of $302, plus court probation for a period of one year. According to the terms of this sentence, the informant may apply to the court to have the conviction set aside under the provisions of Section 103.4 of the California Penal Code. The judge who awarded the sentence was Judge MARIO BARSOTTI of the Berkeley-Albany Municipal Court at Berkeley, California.

The above information is furnished for the Bureau's information. There is no reason to disbelieve the informant's assertion that the tranquilizing drug involved was taken pursuant to the instructions of his physician. Informant acknowledges that he used poor judgment in attempting to drive his automobile after having taken the drug. This informant does not demonstrate signs of instability, nor has he ever furnished any reason to suspect that he is in any way unreliable. This informant is believed to be valuable and in a position to furnish information of considerable value. It is recommended that informant's services be continued. C

Captioned informant is being [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] by reason of informant's request.

When contacted 9/30/77, source advised that he desired to discontinue seeking information for the FBI because he believed that this was inconsistent with his present career and objectives as a student counselor and instructor at a junior college in Oakland, California.

Source advised that he is not willing to testify in open court or before administrative hearing boards if such testimony would reveal his past connection with the FBI. This would alienate him from associates and friends and would cause him great trouble in his relationships with students as a student counselor.

There are no current cases [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] in which informant has furnished information. He has in the past been consulted by Bureau personnel in such matters, however.

b7D

Neither the Bureau nor the Department of Justice has indicated any current interest in utilizing this informant as a witness.

EX-105 REC-21 134-10010-62

Informant does not intend to write a book or engage in any public disclosure of his relationship with the Bureau. He seeks to keep that relationship confidential for his own reasons as well as out of consideration for the best interests of the U.S. Government.
